

Welding and SQA Engineer [HG-010321]

Our partner is a significant player on the electrical product supplier market. The company offers wide range of components and solutions to their customers across globe. They are rapidly expanding and their main aim is to support the growing plan in Hungary.

We are seeking a Welding & Supplier Quality Assurance Engineer who is able to apply welding process improvement methodologies and Quality Assurance tools to improve customer service, supplier productivity, quality and delivery performance.

- Place of work: Fót

Tasks:

- Contributing closely with internal and external customers suppliers and business leader to meet business goals;
- Developing and driving process consistency to ensure compliance;
- Executing Customer Service projects to reduce cycle time and improve fulfillment;
- Conducting process audits and manage regulatory compliance requirements;
- Managing customer complaints;
- Controlling of initial sample inspection report and documentation for laser cut parts and products;
- Monitoring supplier performance to identify and drive weld repair & qualification process improvement;
- Provide technical guidance to suppliers to ensure product/process compliance with standards;
- Review & interpret customer requirements; review & approve supplier quality documentation.

Requirements:

- Technical Bachelors' Degree;
- 3-5 years experience in welding techniques or metal work;
- Quality assurance or supplier engineering is a plus;
- Knowledge of EN1090 standards visual inspection (VT) and NDT;
- Familiar with interpretation of engineering drawings / specifications, and manufacturing process evaluation;
- Ability to addressing and resolving problems in a proactive manner;
- Outstanding communication skills at all level;
- Willingness and ability to travel (>30%) as needed;
- Fluent English & Hungarian language speaking & writing skills.

Apply